

Account Information

help.grandcare.com → technical help → online care portal overview → view accounts → account information

Account Information

Clicking the Account Information button displays the viewable information about the account, including:

- The address for the account, typically where the system is kept
- Whether this a demonstration account

Users at the Account Admin level or higher can edit the account information, by clicking on Manage Account.